"Public Art Can Serve No Higher Purpose Than To Reveal And Embody The Nobility of the Human Spirit" —Frederick Hart

s Traditional Art Experiencing Renaissance?

ink Tank, the weekly PBS ogram on ideas and policy, mined this question in two t programs.

truck a resonant chord. We ceived more mail regarding our ogram on sculptor Frederick Hart an from any previous show. (Prior ecord holder program: Milton and Rose Friedman.) Then our Norman Rockwell program, which aired as he widely acclaimed Rockwell ouring exhibit opened, broke our ecord set by Hart!

problem with much of modern They seek the nobility that Hart 100 ke of.

Ve think this question of a "retraditionalization" within American art—across the board—deserves finither examination. We are in constant on with PBS now and ect a time slot and partial fundfor a prime time special to air a year.
