CLASS REUNION

by Franz Werfel

author of Embezzled Heaven

"Werfel's name has been proposed several times for the Nobel prize. 'Class Reunion' should further that movement." — St. Louis Globe-Democrat

25c—See No. 29 on page 512

Recorded MUSIC

Stravinsky — Le Sacre du Printemps (Columbia Album M-417, $4.50). A masterpiece of ball and the leading musical production of the last thirty years, in its best performance on records, the composer conducting the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra with the fluidity and address that were lacking in the earlier edition. The recording is not without faults, but is manifestly the best yet made of this work.

Mozart — Symphony No. 38, in D, 'Prague K 504 (Columbia Album M-410, $3.50). The rich strings of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and the values of contemporary recording make this enthusiastic reading of Frederick Stock preferable, on the whole, to two other well performed editions.

Mendelssohn — Symphony No. 3, in A Major, 'Scotch', Op. 56 (Victor Album M-69 $4.50). A distinct and judiciously controlled recording of a melodiously fragile piece of neo-classicism, in a standard performance by José Iturbi and the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra that supersedes the only other version.

Brahms — Symphony No. 2, in D, Op. 83 (Columbia Album M-412, $5.50). There is nothing to recommend in this recording of a dismal performance by John Barrolli and the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra, worse even than the Ormandy version recently repudiated here. There is a good expression of the Symphony by Beecham and the London Philharmonic Orchestra in Columbia Album M-265.

Wagner — A Siegfried Idyll (Victor Album G-12, $2.50). Not a very recent recording but a competent one; and the ripest performance (by Bruno Walter and the Vienna
