

Looking Ahead!

SEAL OF TREASON

When the Devil sings, cavaliers must sharpen their wits and polish their blades. Cleve and D'Entreville, the most arrant rogues who ever plagued a Cardinal, turn their blood-letting talents to solving a murder in the Palace and prodding the villain where it hurts the most. A lusty short novel by
M. R. MONTGOMERY

THE DUST ON THE TRAIL

The sinister trouble at Mud Camp was something to be discussed in whispers, and to be forgotten quickly—until the Stranger came riding into town to hold a rendezvous with a burro's ghost. An exciting Western novelet by

"UNCLE SAM'S

new ideas helped make tobacco better than ever

*..and Luckies bought the top-notch grades!"
says Luther Herring, 12 years a buyer!*

Q. "You say Uncle Sam helped tobacco farmers?"

MR. HERRING: "Yes. Even though crops vary with weather, U. S. Government methods have made tobacco better than ever during the past few years."

Q. "And Luckies get this better tobacco?"

MR. H: "Luckies buy the finer grades, and always did."

Q. "That's a strong statement."

MR. H: "Well, I see first hand that they buy the prettier lots of tobacco. That's why Luckies are the 2-to-1 favorite with independent tobacco men. And that's why I've smoked them myself for 21 years." Try Luckies for a week. You'll find they're easy on your throat—because the "Toasting" process takes out certain harsh throat irritants found in all tobacco. You'll also find out why—
