The West in Photographs

Opening February 19 at the Philadelphia Museum of Art is an exhibition of photographs of the West by Robert Adams. Born in New Jersey, Adams now lives outside of Denver and has spent most of his life out West. The 225 photographs in the exhibition were taken between 1965 and 1986; shown here is a photograph of Nebraska State Highway 2 (left) and another of the Missouri River in Clay County, South Dakota (below). The show runs through April 23 and then travels to Washington and Fort Worth.

Save on the best recent history titles.

No matter what area of history you enjoy reading about most, you'll find that History Book Club offers some of the finest selections being published today. And no book club we know of offers greater savings — as much as 30% off publishers' list prices.

You can save even more by taking advantage of our Introductory Offer. Select any three books on this page for $1 each when you take a fourth book at the low Member's price — plus shipping and handling. Thereafter, you're not obligated to order any more books. You may cancel membership at any time by notifying History Book Club. We may cancel your membership if you elect not to buy at least one book in any six-month period.

How the Club works. You'll be able to choose from 150 to 200 books featured each month. History Book Club always offers its members well-made, long-lasting editions.

About every four weeks (14 times a year), you'll receive our Review and a dated Reply Form. If you want the "Editors' Choice," do nothing — the book will come automatically. If you want another book, or no books at all, return the Reply Form by the date specified. A shipping and handling charge is added to each shipment.

Your HBC Guarantee: If you receive an unwanted "Editors' Choice" because you had less than 10 days to decide, simply return it and pay nothing.
