The Rockford Institute and Chronicles present a North American Convivium ♦ September

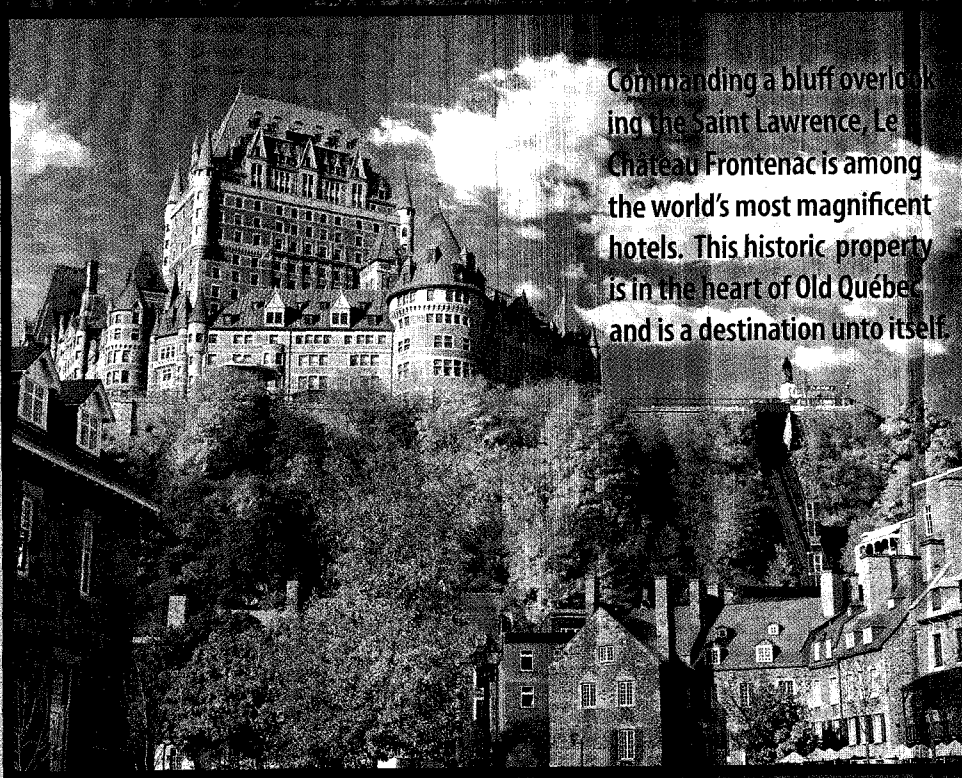

"ENDURING QUÉBEC"

Join Chronicles editor Thomas Fleming, Gail Fleming, and Rockford Institute Vice President Christopher Check this fall, as we explore history.

SINGLE: $1,495
COUPLE: $2,295

The story of Québec is an amazing tale of cultural survival. It begins with brave men—French, English, and others—who fought for Québec, including the gallant Montcalm who died defending the city on the Plains of Abraham and the bold General Wolfe who died in the attack. Although conquered by England and virtually alone on an English-speaking continent, the Québécois held fast to an identity, culture, and language that were threatened with extinction. Today, there is more French spoken in Québec than there was 50 years ago, but have the Québécois triumphed only to succumb to the myth of multiculturalism and the Marxist internationalism that threatens all small nations?

Commanding a bluff overlooking the Saint Lawrence, Le Château Frontenac is among the world's most magnificent hotels. This historic property is in the heart of Old Québec and is a destination unto itself.

The price for the Convivium includes:

- Five nights' lodging at Le Château Frontenac (arrive Sept. 3, depart Sept. 8)
- A welcoming reception
- Three group dinners
- One group lunch
- Guided walks to historic sites
- Lectures and discussions on the culture, history, and politics of North America in its most beautiful city.

For more information, or to register, contact Christopher Check at (815) 964-5811.

All prices increase $300.00 after June 15, 2009. Registration is limited. Previous Convivia have sold out. Registration fees are based on current exchange rates; the Institute reserves the right to assess a fee, should rates change significantly at the dollar's expense.
