A Salute to IN THESE TIMES

For 13 years of solid journalism geared toward the interests of workers and their allies. One of the few publications, outside of the labor press, not controlled by corporate America—a worthy distinction. Here's to another 13 years of 'give 'em Hell' journalism.

International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, AFL-CIO

INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT
George J. Kourpias, Washington, DC

GENERAL SECRETARY-TREASURER
Tom Ducey, Washington, DC

GENERAL VICE PRESIDENTS
Rose Spencer, Dallas, TX
John Peterpaul, Washington, DC
Justin Ostro, Oakland, CA
George Poulin, Stamford, CT
Merle E. Pryor, Jr., Chicago, IL
Val Bourgeois, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada
Don Wharton, Cleveland, OH
Larry Downing, Washington, DC
Edgar M. House, Washington, DC

We congratulate
In These Times
as it celebrates 13 years of thought-provoking and progressive journalism. More than ever, we need a press that challenges the mainstream media and its corporate viewpoint.

President
Bill Casstevens
Secretary-Treasurer

*Now, more than ever, we need ideas, we need vision,
we need the energies and conscience of progressives,
in the labor movement and throughout the country.*

Congratulations on your thirteenth year
