OLD NAZIS, THE NEW RIGHT AND THE REAGAN ADMINISTRATION:

The Role of Domestic Fascist
Networks in the Republican Party and Their Effect on U.S. Cold War Politics

by Russ Bellant

Old Nazis, the New Right and the Reagan Administration identifies former Nazi collaborators who are now nested within the Republican Party, where they hold leadership positions on the Republican Heritage Groups Council, an ethnic outreach unit of the GOP, and continue to work toward their fascist vision for Eastern Europe.

Russ Bellant also examines the willingness of related right wing groups, such as the World Anti-Communist League and the American Security Council, to tolerate racism and anti-Semitism under the banner of anti-communism. The paper includes a timely discussion of the role right wing extremists play in the formulation of U.S. policy toward South Africa and Central America.

Old Nazis, the New Right and the Reagan Administration is a provocative, sometimes chilling, exposé of domestic fascist networks within the Republican Party and the impact of these networks on U.S. foreign and domestic policy.

"Taking On General Motors

by Eric Mann is a great book that offers hope and encouragement during these difficult times."
REV. JESSE JACKSON

Taking on General Motors analyzes the UAW Campaign to Keep GM Van Nuys Open - an eight-year movement of Chicano, African-American, White and Asian auto workers and their community allies that has kept the plant open by threatening GM with a boycott of its products in Los Angeles.

Taking on General Motors critiques the failure of the Democratic Party and union elites to develop effective responses to capital flight, moves to a 60 page history of GM and the UAW, analyzes the internal life of a 5,000 member union, describes the workers battle to deal with a "non-adversarial" "team concept" management system and ends with broader observations about today's labor movement.

Taking On General Motors is written by Eric Mann, a veteran of CORE, SDS, the UAW and a participant in the movement he analyzes. It weaves history, politics, organizing, labor and ethnic studies into a rich and complex tapestry.

To order Taking On General Motors send $20 per copy to:
Labor Distributors, 14540 Haynes St., Suite 200, Van Nuys, CA 91411.
