Apart from that the play is on more or less on a dead level in treating the old story of the rough course of true love of a modern career woman for a man (this time in maritime dress) who has taken Thoreau too seriously.

SEAL BOOKS

FULL LENGTH • NEW BOOKS • BEST AUTHORS

"The most important news in the book world this fall," says Granville Hicks in the New Masses, "is the appearance of good books at twenty-five and thirty-five cents apiece. . . . And it is highly encouraging to find on the first list such a book as MEN WHO LEAD LABOR (by Bruce Minton and John Stuart) . . . it is the story behind the stories you read every day in your newspapers, and it tells you what you need to know to understand the day-to-day accounts. . . . Certainly there are thousands of people in this country who want just the information that is in this book, and they are very foolish if they don't spend thirty-five cents to get it." Well, thousands of people are buying it and Leo Huberman's THE LABOR SPY RACKET, another book which goes behind the headlines and digs out of the mountain of testimony in the LaFollette investigation the exciting and dramatic story of industrial espionage which that inquiry exposed. And they are buying Walter Duranty's volume of short stories, BABIES WITHOUT TAILS, and other titles on the first list of Seal Books in such quantity that we are doubling the print order on our second list. If there is not yet a Seal Book dealer in your neighborhood there will be soon. Additional stores are being supplied at the rate of more than a hundred per day and still we cannot catch up with the demand. For impatient book lovers we are filling direct orders in the manner described in the adjoining column. But soon, very soon, there will be a dealer just around the corner from wherever you are. Look for the sign of The Three Seals in quality book and stationery stores in your neighborhood. And watch particularly about October first for the appearance of our next headliner: LAGUARDIA: AN UNAUTHORIZED BIOGRAPHY by Jay Franklin. It is another full-length, timely Seal Book, and costs only thirty-five cents.

Of unusual interest: THE UNITED STATES: A GRAPHIC HISTORY BY Hacker, Modley and Taylor. A Gold Seal Special, illustrated with 76 pictorial charts. Paper only. 75¢

We shall be glad to send you our publication The Three Seals, which tells about our books and their authors in more detail, FREE. Write for it today. Use coupon in adjoining column.
