THE PERFECT CHRISTMAS GIFT

CARNEGIE LIBRARY
DEC 18 1941
OF PITTSBURGH

Just 'SPOSE—

that a friend of yours should wake up Christmas morning and find in his mail (or her mail) a nice little card telling her (or him) that you had entered her name (or his'n) for a year's subscription to that very clever magazine known among men (and women) as

and if — well — this friend of yours should immediately dash to the telephone, ring you up and say, "Oh, thank you ever so much!" or write you a letter on his (or her) new Christmas stationery saying, "Oh, thank you, ever so much!"

wouldn't you feel that all round it would be indeed

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS

Besides, it's a gift that would make you remembered throughout the whole year—and that's worth considering.
