About People

—That remarkable Italian violinist, Ernesto Camillo Sivori, who has just died, at the age of eighty, at Genoa, was but six years old when Paganini heard him, and was so much impressed that he himself gave him lessons, and even wrote half a dozen sonatas for him. Sivori even wrote half a dozen sonatas for him. Sivori was the master's only pupil.

—The other day the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Cashel, Ireland, was examining a small boy in his catechism, and asked: "What is matrimony?" The little fellow said: "Two people getting married, your Grace?" "Could two little boys get married?" pursued the Archbishop. "Yis, your Grace." "How is that?" "To two little girls, your Grace."

—M. Jules Simon, perhaps the most emi-that?" "To two little girls, your Grace."

—M. Jules Simon, perhaps the most eminent of living Frenchmen, has just celebrated his eightieth birthday. He has resided in the same house in Paris for the past forty-five years. The world might possibly do without his great services as academician, senator, minister, and premier, but who will ever write again such a daily "Mon Petit Journal" for "Le Temps" or any other paper?

—The only child of the Czar and Czarina who enjoys robust health is the Grand Duchess who enjoys robust health is the Grand Duchess Xenia, now nineteen years old. She is by no means beautiful, but is greatly beloved on account of her gentleness of disposition and her devotion to her parents. It is reported that she will marry her cousin, the Grand Duke Alexander, the fourth son of the Grand Duke Michael, brother to the late Alexander

President Lincoln

President Lincoln used to say that you could fool some people all the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you cannot fool all the people all of the time. This explains why people come back to the Gail Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk.

The Fletcher Prize of $500

The Trustees of Dartmouth College offer the above prize, according to the will of the Hon. Richard Fletcher, for the best Essay calculated to counteract the present tendency to a "Fatal Conformity to the World." The following subjects are assigned, with the date at which essay is to be forwarded:

1. In what ways ought the conception of personal life and duty to be modified? Dec. 31, 1894.

2. Should any restrictions, legal or moral, be placed upon the accumulation of wealth? Dec. 31, 1896.

3. How can education be made a greater safeguard against materialism? Dec. 31, 1898.

These subjects may be treated singly or in course. No essay to exceed 250 pages of 270 words each. Circular containing further particulars forwarded if desired.
