AFTER DECADES of fussing Tucker Brooke, Yale, finally spawned what he terms "Shakespeare's Sonnets." According to Tucker Brooke the spelling is modernized by Tucker Brooke. The punctuation is also modernized by Tucker Brooke. The grouping of the Sonnets is also by Tucker Brooke. Surely Tucker Brooke's extreme modesty prevents his entitling the stuff, "The Sonnets of Tucker-Brooke." What a pity, for then he could have used the hyphen, obnoxious to Taedculi, but proper to "Shakespeare's Sonnets," 1609. George Frisbee.

DIRECTIONS	DEFINITIONS	WORDS
To solve this puzzle, you must guess twenty-six words, the definitions of which are given in the column headed DEFINITIONS. The letters in each word to be guessed are numbered. These numbers appear under the dashes in the column headed WORDS. There is a dash for each letter in the required word. When you have guessed a word, fill it in on the dashes; then write each letter in the correspondingly numbered square on the puzzle diagram. When the squares are all filled in you will find (by reading from left to right) a quotation from a famous author. Reading up and down the letters mean nothing. The black squares indicate ends of words; therefore words do not necessarily end at the right side of the diagram.	I. Divination by movements of mice.	69 18 102 47 90 77 95 157
