Double-Crostics: No. 255

By ELIZABETH S. KINGSLEY

DIRECTIONS
To solve this puzzle, you must guess twendefinitions of which are given in the column headed DEFINITIONS. The letters in each word to be quessed are numbered. These numbers appear under the dashes in the colvmn headed WORDS. There is a dash for each letter in the required word. The key letters in the squares are for convenience, indicating to which word in the in the diagram bein the diagram beguessed a word, fill it in on the dashes; then write each letter in the correspondingly numbered square on the puzzle diagram.
When the squares are all filled in you will all filled in you will left to right) a quotation from a famous author. Reading up and down the letters mean nothing. The cate ends of words; cate ends of words:
therefore words do not necessarily end at the right side of the diagram.
When the column headed WORDS is filled in, the initial letters spell the name title of the piece from which the quotation has been taken. Authority for spelling and definitions is Webster's New International ediction).

The solution of last week's Double. Crostic will be found on page 17 of this issue.
