Double-Crostics: No. 376

By ELIZABETH S. KINGSLEY

DHECTIONS

To solve this puzale vou must guess twen-ty-five words, the definitions of which are given in the column headed DELFINITIONS. The letters in each word to be guessed are numbered.
These numbers appear under the dashes in the column headed the column headea WORDS. There is a dash for each letter in the required word. The key letters in the squares are for convenience, indicating to which word in the definitions each letter in the diagram belongs. When you have guessed a pord. fill it in on the dashes; then write each letter in the correspondingly numbered square on the puzzle diagram. When in you will find (by in uou will find (by reading from left to right) a quotation from a famous author. Reading up and down the letters mean nothing. The black squares indicate ends of words therefore vords do not necessarily end at the right side of the diagram.
When the column headed WORDS is filled in, the initial letters spell the name of the au thor and the title of the piece from which the quotation has been taken. Authority for is Webster's defnitions s Webster sictionarv (1988 edition).

The solution of last week's Double Crostic will be found on page 17 of this igsue.

INTRODUCTION BY TIFFANY THAYER

THERE, in their final form, are four of the most audacious astounding, prophetic books of our time. Among thousands of Fort fans are such names as Dreiser Tarkington, Woollcott, and Hecht. "He is the collector of the world's greatest Museum of the Inexplicable," wrote Phil Stong . . . This edition restores to print The Book of the Damned, New Lands, Lo! and Wild Talents, with the first index ever made of Fort's work. $$ 4.00$, at all book stores. 1152 PAGES, INDEXED
