through the inferior courts, local or federal, to the superior and the Grand Tribunal, and securing the counsel and support of the Tribune of the People when the Tribune so decides: and, if a law or statute is found evidently in conflict with the guarantees pledged in the foregoing articles or irreparably in contradiction with the basic principles and intents of the World Republic as stated in the Preamble to this Constitution and in its Declaration of Duties and Rights, the Grand Tribunal shall have power to recommend to the Supreme Court that such law or statute be declared, and the Supreme Court shall have power to declare it, null and void.

The Tribune of the People cannot be impeached except on the same grounds and with the same procedure as specified for the President in Art. 15.

If the Tribune of the People is impeached or resigns or dies, his substitute for the unfulfilled portion of his tenure shall be the candidate to the Tribunate who was next in line in the last Federal Convention, with the same provisos in regard to eligibility as in Art. 26, first paragraph.

The Chamber of Guardians

The control and use of the armed forces of the Federal Republic of the World shall be assigned exclusively to a Chamber of Guardians under the chairmanship of the President, in his capacity of Protector of the Peace. The other Guardians shall be six Councilmen elected by the Council and the Grand Tribunal in Congress assembled, for terms of three years. But the Grand Tribunal shall not participate in the first election.]

One former President shall also sit in the Chamber of Guardians, the sequence to be determined term for term, or, if he resign or die, for the fractional term, according to seniority in the presidential office; he shall have the privilege of the floor in the deliberations of the Chamber, but no vote in its decisions.

Officers holding professional or active rank in the armed forces of the Federal Republic, or in the domestic militia of any component unit thereof, shall not be eligible as Guardians.

The election of the six elective Guardians shall be by secret and proportional vote, with each Elector casting a ballot of six names or less; but no three Guardians of the seven, including the President and excluding the ex-President, shall originate from the same Region; and any presumptive electee whose election would contravene this norm shall be declared ineligible and replaced by the candidate fulfilling the norm and having obtained the next largest vote.

Regions which have not been represented among the seven Guardians referred to above, for two successive three-year terms, shall have mandatory precedences in the subsequent elections; but the Guardian or Guardians originating from a nation or Region where sedition against the World Republic is actual or, according to the majority of the Chamber, imminently expected, shall cease from office and be replaced; unless the other Guardians decide unanimously other-

No Guardian can be impeached or in any way suspended or removed from office for any other reason, except on such grounds and with such procedure as specified for the President and the Tribune of the People hereinbefore [Art. 15 and 34], and for the Guardians hereinafter [Art. 38].

If a Guardian resigns or dies or is in any way suspended or removed, his substitute for the unfulfilled portion of the term shall be chosen by partial election, with the same rules and provisos as in the first two paragraphs of this article, each elector casting a ballot of one or more names as the number of vacancies may be.

The Saturday Review

37.

The Chancellor shall have access to the Chamber of Guardians as Deputy of the President whose vote he shall cast by proxy if the President so decides.

Appropriations for the budget of Peace and Defense, under control of the Chamber of Guardians, as proposed by the Chamber at the beginning of each term for the whole duration thereof, shall be submitted by the President to the Council, in conformity with Art. 13. But if a state of emergency is declared, in the manner and limits as specified hereinbefore [Art. 28, last paragraph], the Chamber shall have power to demand and appropriate such additional funds as the emergency demands, subject to auditing and sanction by the Council when the emergency is closed; whereafter, if sanction is denied, the Guardians responsible shall be liable to impeachment and prosecution for usurpation of power with the same procedure as specified for the President and the Tribune of the People hereinbefore [Art. 15 and 34].

30

The Chamber shall have power to propose by absolute majority, subject to approval by two-thirds majority votes of the Council and of the Grand Tribunal concurrently, extraordinary powers, world-wide or local, to be conferred on the President beyond those assigned to him by this Constitution, when a state of emergency, as provided in Art. 28, is proclaimed; such powers not to be granted for periods exceeding six months each and to be relinquished before the expiration of any such period as soon as the state of emergency, in conformity with Art. 28, is proclaimed closed.

40.

The Chamber of Guardians shall answer interrogations from the Council on its general and administrative directives, but no vote shall be taken after discussion thereof, except as otherwise provided in Art. 28 and 39; and the decisions of the Chamber in matters technical and strategic shall be final, and withheld from publicity when the Chamber so decides.

41.

The Chamber of Guardians, assisted by a General Staff and an Institute of Technology whose members it shall appoint, shall determine the technological and the numerical level that shall be set as limits to the domestic militias of the single communities and states or unions thereof.

Armed forces and the manufacture of armaments beyond the levels thus determined shall be reserved to the World Government.

The Federal Capital and Federal Language and Standards

42.

Within one year of its foundation the World Republic shall choose a Federal Capital, or a site therefor, with eminent domain over it and an adequate Federal District.

43.

Within three years of its foundation the Federal Government shall designate one language, which shall be standard for the formulation and interpretation of the federal laws; and for analogous purposes, relative to communication, taxation and finances, it shall establish in its first year a federal unit of currency with a federal system of measures and a federal calendar.

The Amending Power

Amendments to this Constitution, recommended concurrently by a two-thirds majority of the Council and of the Grand Tribunal, shall be in force when approved by a two-thirds majority of the Federal Convention in the Constitutional Session following the recommendation.

Constitutional Sessions, of thirty days or less, as the discussion may require and the majority may decide, shall be held immediately after the ordinary electoral session in the third Federal

Convention and thereafter every ninth year.

[But no amendment altering the electoral units as listed in Art. 5, or the assignment to them of seats in the Council and the other federal bodies, shall be recommended to the first of such Sessions.]

[Ratification and Preliminary Period

The first Federal Convention shall be the Founding Convention.

The ratio of representation therein shall be based on the world population figures as ascertained or authoritatively approximated in 1948.

The ways and means for the convocation of the Founding Convention, and the regulations for its inaugural and voting procedures, shall be determined by the General Assembly of the United Nations.

The thirty-day electoral session of the Founding Convention shall be preceded by a preliminary session of thirty days or less for the discussion and approval of this Constitution, such preliminary session to be extended for thirty additional days or less as the discussion may require and the majority may decide.

The delegates to the Founding Convention shall vote individually, and not by delegations; except on the assignment to the nine Electoral Colleges or Regions of such optional states or zones as listed hereinbefore [Art. 5]; in which matter the vote of the majority, within the delegation from the state or zone concerned, shall be binding upon the minority; and Art. 5 shall be adjusted accordingly.

The Founding Convention having discussed and approved by individual majority vote this Constitution, ratification by collective majorities within as many delegations of states and nations as represent two-thirds of the population of the earth, shall be sufficient for the establishment of the Federal Republic of the World.

THE CLASSIC DEPARTMENT

BRAHMS. SYMPHONY No. 2. N. Y. Philhar-monic, Rodzinski. Columbia MM 725 (5)

Plenty of close-to accentuation. Background acoustics deadish, but instruments very live, brilliant. First movement seems strangely plodding, wooden; the best improves. Some ragged (relatively) string playing.

BEETHOVEN, "BATTLE SYMPHONY" (WEL-LINGTON'S VICTORY): KING STEPHAN OV. Janssen Symph. of Los Angeles, Janssen. Artist JS 14 (3 plastic)

Very dead, in familiar West Coast manner, but ultrawide range, sharp, clear instrumental effects, fine sur-faces. Good "show" record.

An entertaining work, and its last section has very typical Beeth. writ-ing, not bad at all. Silly to throw hands in hor-ror over this. Enjoy it for what it is. King S. a bit

BERLIOZ, ROMEO ET JULIETTE, Op. 17 (EXC.). NBC Symphony, Toscanini. Victor DM 1160 (3) Victor DV 7 (3 plastic)

Yep, in my copies at least, the shellac is superior: better highs, clearer, not much more noise. A stunning recording (esp. in loud parts!)

Toscanini at his absolute best-perfect union of French and Italian temperaments. Intensity where it is most needed, to pull diffuse music together.

SCHUBERT, SYM-PHONY No. 9 IN C. NBC Symphony, Toscanini. Victor DM 1167 (6)

Comparison: (SAME) N. Y. Philharmonic, Bruno Walter. Columbia MM 679 (6)

Both are exceptionally beautiful recordings, spacious, brilliant. V's is louder, bit more brilliant. C's has somewhat wider range, insignifi-cantly in this situation; also lower turnover (more bass).

T. has clear edge in 1st myt. But his 2nd & 3rd are appalling: incredibly fast, dry, undignified, unlyric. Walter is superb in these myts, also in 4th, where T. drives music to near-hysteria. Not in Schubert!

RUSSIAN-AMERICAN

S T R A V I N S K Y, PASTORALE FOR VIO-LIN, WIND QUARTET; RUSSIAN MAIDEN'S SONG. (VI & pf). Szig-eti, Stravinsky (pf.) wind quartet.

Columbia D72495 (1)

narily realistic, wide - range, closeup recording, unbalanced, even ugly, but exciting. In Pastorale S's breathing is distinctly audible!

Extradordi-

Pastorale a tiny but impressive piece, lyric, undissonant, already widely popular. The maiden is sorrowful, not too inspired. Distinguished personnel.

TCHAIKOVSKY, SYM-PHONY No. 1 ("Winter Reveries"). Indianapolis Symphony Orch., Sevit-Victor DM 1189 (5)

Best orches. tral sound from Victor since war; fine, shimmering liveness, realism. And this with next to no higher highs. Can be done!

An astonishingly alive, accurate performance— a minor orch. to match A--to the majors. This is Tch. for those who tire of repertory works. A good piece.

K H A T C H A T U R-I A N, M A S Q U E R-ADE SUITE. N. Y. Philharmonic, Stokovski. Columbia MM 729 (3)

Resonant, ffrr-like technique here— Stokovski's idea? Distant-mike pick-up, seemingly. High subdued, though present.

Skilfully written and orchestrated music of profound dulness. Heppedup salon stuff.
