

Saturday Review

OCT 27 1952

NOVEMBER 1, 1952 TWENTY CENTS

THE ROMAN BRAHMIN

By PAUL ARTHUR SCHILPP

The Cult of Unintelligibility

By BEN LUCIEN BURMAN

Frederick Lewis Allen, author of
"The Big Change." (See page 11)

FAYE heads the newest biggest bestest afternoon lineup in radio

Faye Emerson, one of America's most popular women, now leads off radio's greatest daytime personality line-up, at 12:05, on WNBC. Her music and women's news and views are followed, at 12:45, by Skitch Henderson and his distinctive piano arrangements and recordings. At 1:30, Conrad Nagel brings you his literate report on Hollywood doings . . . followed at 1:35 by his program of music and anecdotes from the screen capitol.

WNBC

For the very best in radio—set your dial at 6-6-0 . . . WNBC