

Saturday Review

SEPTEMBER 14, 1957 / 25¢

TODAY'S TEACHER: A PROFILE

CRISIS IN THE COLLEGES

PAPERBACKS IN THE CLASSROOM

TV: TEACHER'S FRIEND OR FOE?

OUR EGOCENTRIC CHILDREN

ONE CITY TRIES INTEGRATION

SR's Accent on Education Number

NEW

VIKING FICTION

Patrick White

"One of the finest historical novels
I have read in years. . . .

"Mr. White's novel is so brilliant and sustained a performance that the reviewer felt like going out into the street and buttonholing passersby into reading it. . . . This individual language carries him triumphantly through every scene in this teeming, tumultuous tale of long ago."—JOHN BARKHAM, Saturday Review Syndicate $5.00

VOSS

Janet Stevenson

A dramatic Civil War suspense story of a gallant woman spy

People in Richmond called her Crazy Bet. But under her frowzy bonnet was an amazing mind. Coolly, she directed a network of agents for the North and hid escaped prisoners in her secret attic. Rescued from oblivion by Miss Stevenson's imaginative pen, she emerges as a valiant heroine of the war. $3.50

WEEP NO MORE

Lalage Pulvertaft

A modern love story by one of London's most engaging
new writers

In this tragicomic tale of amorous intrigue, Miss Pulvertaft uses her incisive wit to unmask a fascinating group of sophisticated Londoners. "One of the best books I've read in a long time: pungent and full of relevance."—RAE BROOKS, Book-of-the-Month Club News. "Shrewd and witty . . . an intellectual and emotional adventure for anyone."—The Spectator $3.50

THE
THING
DESIRED

Elizabeth Taylor

A wickedly amusing and touching novel of a fabulous "lady novelist"

"Miss Taylor has had a field day. . . . Beautifully told . . . both amusing and moving."—London Times. This portrait of a writer of monstrous egocentricity whose popular success astounds her publishers and confounds the critics is "an absolute joy."—Time and Tide. By the author of The Sleeping Beauty. $3.50

ANGEL

A superb collection of wartime fiction
by the most talented American writers

The tremendous range of human emotion and experience during the holocaust of war is vividly set forth by writers like William Styron, Irwin Shaw, James Jones, and others. It is a collection to be savored for its literary excellence and narrative appeal. $5.95

The Best Short
Stories of World War II
Edited by Charles A. Fenton

...and the newest quality paper-
bounds from a great Viking list....

ETRUSCAN PLACES

by D. H. Lawrence $1.25

LOSER TAKES ALL

by Graham Greene $.95
(First U. S. book publication)

THE MOTH AND
THE STAR

A Biography of Virginia
Woolf by Aileen Piplett $1.45

THE CRAFT OF FICTION

by Percy Lubbock $1.25

ARISTOTLE'S POLITICS
AND POETICS $1.25

DYLAN THOMAS
IN AMERICA

by John Malcolm Brinnin $1.45

THE PORTABLE
STEINBECK

Edited by Pascal Covici;
introduction by
Lewis Gannett $1.25

THE PORTABLE
THOREAU

Edited by Carl Bode $1.45

Send for a free brochure of the many outstanding titles published by Viking in fine paper bindings.

THE VIKING PRESS

625 Madison Ave., New York 22, N. Y.