DIRECTIONS

To solve this puzzle you must guess twenty-odd WORDS, the definitions of which are given in the column headed DEFINITIONS. Alongside each definition, there is a row of dashes—one for each letter in the required word. When you have guessed a word, write it on the dashes, and also write each letter in the correspondingly numbered square of the puzzle diagram. . . . When the squares are all filled in, you will find that you have completed a quotation from some published work. If read up and down, the letters in the diagram have no meaning. . . . Black squares indicate ends of words; if there is no black square at the right side of the diagram, the word carries over to the next line. . . . When all the WORDS are filled in, their initial letters spell the name of the author and the title of the piece from which the quotation has been taken. Of great help to the solver are this acrostic feature and the relative shapes of words in the diagram as they develop. Authority for spellings and definitions is Webster's New International Dictionary, Second Edition.

...ALL the works of ALL the World's Greatest Painters

How you can become a collector (at great savings) of

THE COMPLETE LIBRARY OF WORLD ART

A Series of 150 Volumes Encompassing Mankind's
Whole Heritage of the Visual Arts

There's never been an Art Library like this. Three great publishing houses—Hawthorn Books in the United States, Rizzoli Editore in Italy, and Oldbourne Press in England—have joined forces to bring you, in exquisite reproductions...the entire life's work of each of the world's greatest painters!

Many Unique Features

These books will give to scholars, connoisseurs and art lovers—for the first time—

- photographic reproductions of the COMPLETE WORKS—in one medium—of each of the world's greatest painters. Every reproduction is printed in precise monochrome, or in full color which faithfully reproduces the colors of the original. And no work has been omitted—whether hanging in museums and galleries—or in private collections not accessible to the public
- fascinating technical descriptions of the works (media employed, dimensions, restored portions, etc.)
- up to 80 pages of lucid, authoritative comment; the life stories of the Masters; plus the enlightening observations of critics and historians, past and present
- descriptions of other graphic, sculptural and architectural works attributed to each Master
- facts about works which have been lost or destroyed

- indexes by cities and countries indicating where the works may be seen
- comprehensive bibliographies
- a format that is compact and convenient—individual volumes can be taken along on museum visits
- a pleasantly low price

One Volume To Be Published Each Month

Because of the complexity of the work, specific plans for only 40 volumes—out of 150 volumes—have been made at the present time; and even these 40 volumes can only be published at a rate of one each month. Those who have been privileged to see advance material are enthusiastic in their reactions.
