DIRECTIONS

To solve this puzzle you must guess twenty-odd WORDS, the definitions of which are given in the column headed DEFINITIONS. Alongside each definition, there is a row of dashes—one for each letter in the required word. When you have guessed a word, write it on the dashes, and also write each letter in the correspondingly numbered square of the puzzle diagram . . . When the squares are all filled in, you will find that you have completed a quotation from some published work. If read up and down, the letters in the diagram have no meaning . . . Black squares indicate ends of words; if there is no black square at the right side of the diagram, the word carries over to the next line . . . When all the WORDS are filled in, their initial letters spell the name of the author and the title of the piece from which the quotation has been taken. Of great help to the solver are this acrostic feature and the relative shapes of words in the diagram as they develop. Authority for spellings and definitions is Webster's New International Dictionary, Second and Third Editions.

Saturday Review

Nova Scotia's Cape Breton: Leif the Lucky, John Cabot, Captain Cook and John Paul Jones all knew its splendour

The countryside is green and flowering, and warm in welcome. The Cabot Trail, 185 miles of spectacular highway, plunges into verdant valleys, climbs round timbered peaks. It begins at Baddeck, on salty Brás d'Or Lake, one of the finest yachting playgrounds on the continent; follows the Margaree River, home of trout and Atlantic salmon, winds through Cape Breton Highlands National Park and along the beaches at Ingonish and Neil Harbour, then soars over the towering headland of Cape Smoky.

During the 18th century, on the rugged shores of Cape Breton, France and England fought for supremacy in Nova Scotia. One hundred years later, shiploads of Highland

Scots immigrated to this "New Scotland."

Today, each of these cultures retains its distinct identity. The spirited Gaelic Mod, an annual festival of Celtic culture, is held at St. Ann's (Aug. 9-14), while in fishing villages such as Arichat and Cheticamp, the soft Acadian French accents still charm and the ancient crafts are skilfully perpetuated.

"The Road to the Isle," across the Canso Causeway, beckons you on to your own kind of adventure. Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, awaits your discovery this summer. To help you start planning, mail the coupon today.

How to build an authentic European sidewalk cafe

- ① Place one small table outside

- ② Add Cinzano French and Italian vermouth (What luck—Cinzano sells both in this country!)

- ③ Add a genuine European umbrella*

- ④ Add yourself and a friend

- ⑤ Add a curious policeman....

- ⑥ ...who'll make you take everything inside (good thing Cinzano tastes great anywhere!)

WHEN YOU MIX WITH CINZANO YOU MIX WITH THE BEST!

*Imported Cinzano Umbrella, Send $14.95 (check or money order) to: Munson G. Shaw Co., Import Plaza, Dept. A, P.O. Box 222, Harrison, N. J. / Munson G. Shaw Co. sole distributor U. S. A.
