

SR's 25th ANNUAL UNIVERSITY PRESS ISSUE

Saturday Review

June 10, 1967 35¢

BESTS OF THE 1966-67 THEATER SEASON

By Henry Hewes

Edward Albee, whose play "A Delicate Balance" won this year's Pulitzer Prize (See Theater)

40D R757558884 AMBA95522SEP67
AMBASSADOR COLL LIBR
BOX 927
BIG SANDY TX 75755

A NEW LIFT FOR AMERICAN INDUSTRY

As easily as a giant cat moving kittens, this newly designed machine loads highway trailers on a rail car...helping to push piggybacking to successive records.

Specialized equipment typifies the railroads' breakthrough in freight transportation technology: push button yards...microwave communications...automated traffic control.

Such advances produce the efficiencies that help hold down the cost of living...keep railroads ahead of the nation's growing transportation needs.

ASSOCIATION OF
american railroads

