

Trade Winds

I wrote about telephone tyranny in TRADE WINDS [June 3]: how people will interrupt absolutely anything because they feel compelled to answer a ringing phone. Among those who read the story was playwright Jack Dell, whose The Duel opens soon in London. He had an appointment with his agent, Helen Harvey of Ashley Famous, but he just twiddled his thumbs in her office while she kept taking phone calls. Remembering TRADE WINDS, he sneaked out while she was in the midst of a call, went down to the lobby of the J. C. Penney Building, telephoned Miss Harvey, and had her undivided attention.

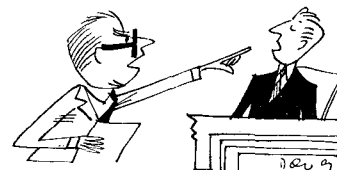

And Roy E. Berger of Des Moines recalls that when he went to enroll at the University of Iowa, he first had to get in line with about seventy-five other potential students to obtain a housing commitment. The line inched forward, until finally Berger got out of it, went to a phone booth, called the housing office, and was waited on immediately. No housing was available! So he enrolled at Iowa State and became an architect instead of an engineer.

I look at a lot of publications, but there is at least one that I always read from cover to cover, word for word. It is Film Fan Monthly, and you may think I'm a little old-fashioned, but when I take a trip, it's to Movieland. In the latest issue, for instance, is a fine profile of Wallace Beery and then a list of the 202 motion pictures he played in. I couldn't stop myself, reading all the titles and the names of the other members of the casts, trying to remember which ones I saw. Film Fan Monthly has provided me with the story of Thelma Todd, an interview with Eddie Bracken, a history of serials, and a special "Our Gang" issue. It's not all nostalgia, for there are reviews of current books and movies, and there is information on 8-mm and 16-mm films for home use.

The editor of the little magazine is Leonard Maltin, who is so knowledgeable about old movies and yet is a mere sixteen years of age! Film Fan Monthly, having passed its sixth anniversary in August, is published for grownups who still have that passion for old films that Leonard says he developed when he was fourteen. The address is 254 Merrison Street, Teaneck, New Jersey. Now go away while I study this list of how many different ways Brian Donlevy was killed on the screen. Let's see—shot, trampled, hanged, drowned, horsewhipped. . . .

Here are some more examples of actual testimony from the National Short-hand Reporters Association and these are to prove that sometimes lawyers ask one question too many. In a separation action, the husband was being grilled by the wife's attorney:

ATTORNEY: Do you mean to say you have always treated your wife with respect?

HUSBAND: I do. I have never spoken a harsh word to her.

ATTORNEY: Be careful how you answer and remember you are under oath.

HUSBAND: Well, I remember I did yell at her once.

ATTORNEY: Ah, now you remember. What did you say to her?

HUSBAND: I shouted: "Put down that poker!"

In the following instance, a young attorney was trying to discredit a witness:

Q: After you made your appraisal of the property, why did you consult with three other appraisers?

A: Just to confirm my judgment as to the value.

Q: Didn't you trust your own judgment?

A: Yes, sir.

Q: Then why did you consult with three others?

A: I don't know, unless it's for the same reason that you have three other lawyers at the table with you there.

Sometimes, like Walter Mitty, a witness can be devastating, as in this cross examination:

Q: As a matter of fact, sir, you were so scared, you don't know whether it was a motor car or something resembling a motor car that hit you, isn't that true?

A: Well, it resembled one, all right. I was struck by the resemblance.

A few years ago a book of mine was translated into Japanese by an English

MYSELF by Sylvia Ashton-Warner

She writes with passionate honesty about the crucial years of her life as a young wife, mother, artist — and teacher.

The Museum of Modern Art Christmas brochure

An illustrated, 40-page brochure announcing all new Christmas cards and constructions, books, reproductions, and a wide selection of distinctive gifts from The Museum of Modern Art is now available. Cards and constructions reproduce favorite works by artists in the Museum Collection including Picasso, Villon, and Georgia O'Keeffe. Others have been specially commissioned from contemporary artists. They range from a poster design by Ryuichi Yamashiro (10 cents) to Mon Levinson's silk-screen Plexiglas construction (limited edition at $1.95). Highlights are the specially designed Chess Set, 1968 Appointment Calendar, new posters, recent publications, and the Trova Kaleidoscope—an unusual version of a classic Christmas toy.

GERTRUDE STEIN

AND THE PRESENT

By Allegra Stewart

Though accepting a view of the cosmos as purposeless process, Gertrude Stein believed that modern man could counter his troubled sense of absurdity and alienation by means of contemplation, creative disassociation, and a renewed experiencing of "human mind."

This book, neither a biography nor a psychoanalytical study, sees Gertrude Stein's thought in the light of major intellectual trends of our century. Focusing on three important works, Miss Stewart presents an analysis that has significant psychological, linguistic, and philosophical implications, and she suggests in a compelling new way the source of Stein's unmistakable cultural importance and contemporary relevance.

professor, Yoichiro Kobori. Recently he and his wife, Yoko, visited the United States, and I was pleased to discover that Mr. Kobori has a fine sense of humor; so my book probably was more entertaining in Japanese than in English. Mr. Kobori is here gathering information about suburban life, a subject he will write about in a newspaper column when he returns to Kamakura, where he lives.

I asked Yoko, who was in her native dress, about the quaint customs in her native land. The Oriental way of life is so different. In the morning Yoko telephones the store and they deliver the groceries. As for the laundry, she quaintly puts it in the automatic washer and then in the electric dryer. In the afternoon the housewives gather in someone's parlor for a tea klatch, where they discuss clothes, hair, and compare haiku.

Her husband drives the car to the station for a sixty-minute ride on the commuter train to Tokyo. "It's like washing potatoes," he told me, describing the crowded trains. "Sometimes I make the whole trip and my feet never touch the floor."

East is East and West is West and never the—crash!

Sharps and Flats: Somehow a review copy of The Stitches of Creative Embroidery was sent to MD, the medical news magazine. MD sent it back to Reinhold, the publishers, saying its a subject of no interest to doctors. Reinhold is disappointed, claiming that a little fancy looping and knotting would liven up surgery.

► A flower vendor at 45th and Broadway calls out to passers-by: "I've got some of yesterday's flowers to match your faded look."

The Swissair Rock and Bach run to Zurich

If you've been to Zurich, chances are all you saw of Zurich were the music boxes you picked up at the airport for the kids.

That's because Zurich is one of the natural connecting points in Europe for catching another Swissair plane going somewhere else.

Which is too bad.
Because a lot of people don't stop
long enough to take in Dizzy Gillespie at the Volkshaus or Don Giovanni at the Opernhaus or a little frugging at the Palazzo.

Just for the fun of it call Swissair.
We have offices in principal cities.
Or get in touch with your travel agent.
Ask him about our $360* or even $268
round-trip New York to Zurich
"Rock and Bach run."

After all, with 21 Swissair flights a week
out of N.Y., Chicago and Montreal, we make it nice and easy
for you to leave for Zurich.

RECORDS TAPES STEREO GEAR BOOKS

Here are 10 facts about uniCLUB. They are 10 reasons to clip the coupon and join now!

1. Any LP or tape on every U.S. or foreign label available. Columbia-Capitol-RCA-London & 350 more. No exceptions.
2. You save a minimum of 35% on LP's; 33% on tapes and 25% on books.

LP's LIST	uniCLUB
$1.98	$1.23
2.98	1.85
3.79/98	2.39
4.79/98	2.99
5.79/98	3.69

3. You can save even more by taking advantage of the regular extra discount "Specials." Save up to 80% off list price. Right now, for example, the entire RCA Red-Seal catalog is $2.75 mono; $3.25 stereo. The Vox $4.98 series is $1.75 mono and stereo.

4. Never a requirement to buy. No monthly "stop-order" forms to return. You receive just what you order.

5. LIFETIME MEMBERSHIP

The club membership fee is $5. This is for lifetime privileges which are increasing all the time.

6. FREE CLUB MAGAZINE

Members regularly receive "uniGUIDE" advising them of the latest releases, recommended best-buys and extra discount "Specials." When you join you receive a free 300-page Schwann record catalog listing every available record and its price. You receive a free Harrison tape catalog if you specify.

7. FASTEST SERVICE ANYWHERE

Your orders are not only processed but shipped the same day we receive them. This unique service is possible because your orders are picked from an inventory of over 250,000 LP's & tapes. You get factory-new sealed albums and tapes only. Defects are fully returnable at no charge.

8. SAVE UP TO 50% ON STEREO GEAR

Individual components or complete systems—

uniCLUB supplies hi-fidelity equipment of virtually every manufacturer at tremendous savings. This month's "Hi-Fi Special" is a Garrard Lab 80 turntable; List $100.00, to members only $59.95.

9. BOOKS OF ALL PUBLISHERS

The Book Division—only uniCLUB has it—offers members at least 25% off on any book in print.* You get only original publishers' editions. uniGUIDE lists best-sellers, just-published works and book "Specials."

*Texts are reduced 10%.

10. FOUR CLUBS IN ONE

uniCLUB is really a time-saver. It makes joining many clubs unnecessary. Now you can buy all your records, tapes, auto-cartridges, books and stereo-gear from one convenient source. We hope you'll join today!

SAVE MONEY EVEN ON YOUR MEMBERSHIP FEE

Give gift memberships with full lifetime privileges for only $2.50 each. Splitting the cost with one other person lowers cost to $3.75; enrolling five at a time brings cost down to only $3 each.

Send my Free Schwann catalog; order blanks & uniGUIDE by return mail. $5 enclosed guarantees me:

1. LIFETIME MEMBERSHIP in uniCLUB
2. 35%-80% savings on LP albums, 1/3 off on tapes, 25% on books.
3. No requirements ever to buy anything. Nothing will ever be sent until I order it.

I must be delighted with uniCLUB or within 10 days I will let you know and receive a full refund.
