

America Already Invaded

MR. ROOSEVELT and the War Dealers continually complain that the people "do not realize the grave danger facing the nation."

On the contrary, the people realize the danger full well; but it is not the imaginary danger of a Hitler invasion ballyhooed by the War Dealers in order to hide the real peril.

The chief menace facing America is the invasion of our national, state and municipal governments by the Reds, an invasion that is fast approaching the stage of complete conquest.

For over ten years now, this stealthy assault has been going steadily forward, aided and abetted behind the scenes by those who are loudest in their bellowings to defend democracy by going to war.

It is a matter of grave significance that the present Administration has been cultivating ever closer relations with the Communists.

Since 1933, when the Soviet dictatorship was accorded recognition by the President, more and more Reds have secured key positions in the Federal Government.

The labor movement has become a virtual front organization of the Comintern.

And now we are being taxed and propagandized to give all aid to the Bolshevik regime in Russia and its program of world revolution!

A great many people, of course, find it difficult to conceive how there can be any connection between Marxism, which is ostensibly bent on overthrowing capitalism and private property, and the international plutocracy, which is all for bigger and bigger financial and industrial monopoly.

But "monopoly" is the keynote of the entire racket.

In short, Communism and the other brands of Marxism are a gigantic hoax whereby the financial internationalists will seize all the remaining bourgeois wealth and property which they do not already control and, under the guise of socialization, will establish a world monopoly of industry and finance in which everybody will be reduced to the level of serfs; while being told like the dupes in Russia that they are the "owners" of the "mines, the factories, the banks," and so on.

The truth of the matter is that the so-called proletariat in Russia are as much the owners of the socialized economy as an underpaid janitor in a third-class New York hotel is the "owner" of the establishment in which he works.

And that is the same huge fraud which the Reds and crypto-Reds over here are planning to foist onto the American people under the guise of "social progress."

The plan of the war and revolution racketeers is simply this: the War Dealers, by yelling "Defend democracy all over the world," hope to ruin the country by plunging us into a total war.

Then, in the inevitable disorder and bankruptcy that will ensue, their Marxist confederates holding all the key positions will take over the controls, and with the aid of the old reliable weapon of the Red

Terror will massacre all real Americans and establish a Soviet dictatorship.

Now that we have been inveigled into becoming an ally of the "Kremlin Criminal," we shall be treated to a still stronger dose of all aid to Communism, which is currently getting a whitewash from such eminent dupes as the Dean of Canterbury, the Archbishop ditto, Reverend Hobson, and others of their ilk.

Even Justice Murphy, Bishop Hurley and Mr. Roosevelt go to some exertion to make the Red Menace appear respectable, harmless and worthy of being defended with the American taxpayers' last dollar and last son, by contrasting it with the worse horrors they represent for the German nation.

One wonders if these prominent individuals realize what they are doing in thus aiding and abetting the most monstrous conspiracy that has ever threatened Christian civilization; a conspiracy that has wreaked havoc in every country where it was allowed to gain headway; a conspiracy that has destroyed in Russia alone more human lives than were lost in all major wars from 1860 up to the present.

The stock argument of the Red-coddlers that the Soviet government and the Communist International are distinct entities in no wise connected with each other is a sophisticated camouflage to fool the gullible. Comrade Oumansky, of course, would never be so indiscreet as to be caught hob-nobbing with Earl Browder, Wm. Z. Foster or Israel Amter, in or outside of the Soviet Embassy. But that does not alter the fact that the Comintern and its American subsidiary, the Communist Party of the United States, are as much a part of the Soviet government, and beholden to it, as is the British Intelligence Service with regard to the Foreign Office, or the Auslands branch of the Gestapo vis-a-vis the Nazi government.

The only difference between the latter two organizations and the Russian one is that the Comintern is far greater in scope and a much greater menace to America.

Indeed, the Comintern with its various affiliated national parties is nothing less than a gigantic espionage and fifth-column organization primed to spread civil war and revolution in every land on orders from the ruler of the Kremlin and his secret backers.

A few years ago, a prominent Communist boasted privately to some sympathizers as follows:

"If and when the Communist movement is outlawed in the United States, we will work underground and use the same methods that brought about the Russian revolution by assassinating the government officials who are our enemies and scaring the others to death! We will plant 'cells' in their fashionable clubs and their homes and poison their food. We did it in Russia and succeeded."

Another camouflage of the Red-coddlers is that the Socialists, Pinks and other Leftists who swarm in every branch of public life today, are harmless. They are supposed to be well-meaning liberals and defenders of "democracy." Yet they are all undeniably

Marxists and they always collaborate with the Communists.

Such was the case in the Popular Front governments of Léon Blum and Largo Caballero, Socialist premiers. The Caballero regime during the Spanish civil war was controlled by the Russian Reds, and the Socialists, Pinks and New Dealers of Spain supported the Red Terror.

In the strong-box of the Wall Street internationalists, who secretly rule the Communist racket, lie the alternate plans for putting into execution the Red Terror as soon as M-Day (M for Meranus) dawns.

The Dies Committee has unearthed ample evidence of the plot and its backers; yet the latter are so dominant that the evidence has been deliberately suppressed.

According to the smothered evidence, more than three million men of military ability who are members of Communist front organizations will be used to form "a People's Army under No. 2 Plan or under No. 3 Plan when the time is ripe to establish a Soviet America."

They will take over or wreck arsenals, arms depots, armories, police stations, telephone exchanges, radio and telegraph networks, airdromes, and all public services; while squads of trade-union goons and G.P.U. killers will assassinate public officials and cow the people in general.

Hitler at his worst could never equal a menace to America like that already under way by the Reds!

It is obvious, therefore, that anyone who preaches that America must join a foreign war to defend democracy, the Four Freedoms, the Eight Platitudes or whatnot, is consciously or unconsciously aiding the schemes of the war and revolution racketeers.

America's war is right here at home, against the deadly termites who are stealthily preparing to destroy the nation and enslave our people.

The same tactics and the same bait used to enslave Russia are being employed here by the Reds and crypto-Reds.

They promise peace, prosperity, liberty, equality, fraternity, or anything under the sun in order to hoodwink the gullible and the indifferent.

If the American people allow their country to fall a prey to the Marxist racket, they will have only their own lethargy and stupidity to blame, and their children's children will pay the penalty in blood, tears and degradation for generations to come.

Orders From Home

CAPTAIN Alex Stratford Cunningham-Reid, Conservative, told the House of Commons last week that British propaganda in the United States will have to be intensified.

"The America First Committee," he said, according to the Herald of Lake Geneva, Wis., "last month increased its membership from 10,450,000 to something over 15-million."

"Even for a country with a population as large as that of America, the organization is extremely large."

Lindbergh's 'Last' Speech

A Nation's Heritage of Freedom at Stake

ADDRESSING an America First rally in Fort Wayne, Indiana, on Friday, October 3rd, former Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh delivered the message that he would give the American people if it were the last speech he would be permitted to make.

SOCIAL JUSTICE, with permission, quotes the complete manuscript of Mr. Lindbergh's address:

"When I speak to you here in Fort Wayne tonight, I realize that it may be my last address.

"How much longer free speech will be possible in the United States, I do not know. But I do know that an Administration which can throw this country into undeclared naval war against the will of our people, and without asking the consent of Congress, can by similar methods prevent freedom of speech among us.

"There are many signs that such action may be taken in the near future, with as little warning as accompanied the occupation of Iceland.

"Those of us who oppose war do not know from one week to the next what censorship we will be subjected to. Pressure of every sort is brought to bear upon us. We find lecture halls closed to our speakers, while the doors are wide open even to foreigners who advocate war.

"We find propaganda from Moscow in the banner headlines of most of our newspapers, while the facts and arguments against war are relegated to back pages if they are printed at all.

"Smear campaigns are organized against everyone who opposes intervention. When our arguments cannot be answered by logic, they are answered by bombast and calumny. If we have friends on the Government pay roll, we hesitate to be seen talking to them because we know that, just as in the totalitarian countries, they may lose their jobs as a result.

"Now the cry is being raised that in order to protect freedom and democracy throughout the world, freedom of speech must be withheld at home. And so, tonight, while I hope it may not be the case, I shall speak to you as though this were my last address.

"I shall discuss the conditions which will confront us, and the procedure I believe we should follow, if free speech ends in America.

"If free speech ends in this country, it means that we are no longer a free people. It means that we are about to enter dictatorship, and probably foreign war. It means that we will be forced to do this against the will of our people, just as we have been forced into an undeclared naval war against the will of our people.

"What does the 'will of the people' mean? The interventionists claim they are following the will of the people, and that the people have approved the steps they have taken toward war. It is true that the people have approved most of these steps, but why did they approve them?

"When the majority of Americans approved lifting the arms embargo, when they approved the transfer of battleships to England, when they approved the Lease-Lend Bill, and all those other steps 'short of war,' they approved them because the Administration said that these were steps to increase the security of our nation, and to decrease the likelihood of war.

"In other words, the people believed what was told them by their President and his Administration. They believed their elected leaders when they said that all those steps were not only 'short of war' but especially planned to keep America out of war. They had implicit faith in the promises of the President and his Administration. They believed, and now they find they have been deceived.

"The interventionists claim we have reached our present position by taking steps which the majority of people approved of, and that, therefore, the will of the people has prevailed. The fact is that we have reached this position by following the false promises of the interventionists, and of our Administration in Washington.

"Not one step the Administration has taken in these last two years was placed honestly before our people as a step toward war. The interventionist leaders knew that not one step could have been taken if it had been placed honestly before the people as a step toward war. And so they consciously and deceptively called them steps 'short of war,' and for the purpose of American defense.

"When we elected President Roosevelt, we elected him on promises that he would strive for peace. In fact, we elected him on actual promises of peace, stated again, and again, and again. We elected him on a party platform that was against war. If the will of the people, or democracy, or representative government mean anything at all, they mean that President Roosevelt was morally bound to make every effort, and to take every opportunity, to keep this country out of foreign war.

"But, instead of seizing every opportunity to draw us further from the war, the President and his Administration have not missed a single chance to push us closer to it. Instead of avoiding incidents of war, they have created them. Instead of following our mandate to stay out, they have, by subterfuge and dictatorial procedure, led us in.

"They have not only turned their backs on their campaign promises, but they have been treating our Congress more and more as the German Reichstag has been treated under the Nazi regime. Congress, like the Reichstag, is not consulted.

"The issue of war or peace has never been put up to the people nor to its duly elected representatives in Congress because the President and his Administration know that the people would not accept it. They dare not tell us that these steps mean war, and they dare not tell us what war means!

"They dare not tell us that to crush Germany means to invade Europe, and that to invade Europe probably means the most devastating war of all history.

"We are tired of political promises and wishful thinking. We remember being told years ago that Germany was not economically able to prepare herself for a major war.

"After she had prepared, we were told that her people would revolt before they would fight under Hitler.

"After the war began, we were told that England and France would win if we would only sell them arms.

"Last Spring, the Allies would win if we would only lend them arms.

"A few weeks later, they would win if we would only bring them arms.

"Now, our Navy is involved, and there is already talk of sending mechanized divisions.

"When the war started, the French army was going to break the Siegfried Line and save Poland. Then, the British navy was going to blockade Germany to defeat. Then, we were going to send so many airplanes to England that she could bomb Germany to defeat.

"All of these statements have proven false.

"But those of us who questioned them at the time they were made were accused of being 'fifth columnists,' and 'Nazi agents.' The statements you hear today to the effect that only naval, and air, and specialized units, will be needed to win the war for England are simply a continuation of the same subterfuge and propaganda. They are made by the same people who were wrong before.

"As a nation, we have been led along like children, with sugared promises and candied pills. Our leaders think that is the easiest way to obtain their desires. But we are not children; we are supposed to be the free citizens of a free nation. Free citizens prefer to know the truth and hear the facts, so let us face them.

"If we are going to war against the Axis Powers, we cannot count on a series of miracles to come to our assistance. If we are going to wage war successfully, we must prepare for war on a basis of probabilities, and not on the basis of our desires. If we are going into a war to defeat Germany, it means that we must create military forces large enough and strong enough to cross the Atlantic and force a landing on the European coast against the greatest military power the world has ever known.

"If we intend to do that — if it is possible at all — it will necessitate turning this country into a military State on standards similar to those of Germany herself. It means that, probably for a decade, and possibly for several generations, America must be a uniformed and regimented nation.

"It means that we will have to raise an army, not of one million men or of two million men, but probably of at least ten million men.

"It means that every family in America will have its wounded and its dead.

"It means that we must find some way we don't yet know, to transport troops across an ocean and land them on a hostile coast under the bombardment of a strong enemy air force.
